Transgender EuroStudy

publication, health and depathologisation

In May 2008, Transgender Europe and ILGA-Europe published the first comprehensive report on the experiences of healthcare by transgender people in European Union. This report is a result of the largest and most comprehensive data collection on transgender people's lived experienced to date.

Download report