Get in touch

TGEU works across three main areas: advocacy, community, and research. We collaborate with organisations to expand trans rights in Europe and Central Asia.

Please note:

- We are unable to provide direct crisis support to individuals.
- We cannot offer support to organisations outside our regional scope.

Before contacting us, please check our FAQ section below — many common questions are answered there.

If your question isn't covered, you're welcome to reach out via email or the encrypted contact form below.

Frequently Asked Questions

I need support for my transition

Toggle Accordion

Unfortunately, we're not in a position to provide funding to individuals or organisations to support transition processes. However, we can redirect you to our members or local organisations in Europe or Central Asia for information or counselling. If that would be helpful to you, please contact us using the contact form below.

I'm a trans person and urgently need to relocate to a safer place

While we're unable to support individual requests, we recommend:

- Rainbow Railroad provides support to LGBTI people seeking safety around the world.
- For support in a specific country, please check our Members list.
- If the country you need is not on the list but is in Europe or Central Asia, please contact us. We'll try our best to help.

I'm an activist and urgently need to relocate to a safer place

We recommend these organisations and resources for human rights defenders at risk:

- Front Line Defenders;
- Freedom House;
- ProtectDefenders.eu;
- Urgent Action Fund.

If you are a TGEU member or are based in Europe or Central Asia, we might be able to give you more specific recommendations. Please reach out to us using the form below.
