TGEU's General Assembly (GA) is at the core of our work. It is the guiding voice of TGEU and its highest decision-making body. In times of crisis, those of us living on the margins suffer the most. As our community continues to deal with several threats and emergencies such as wars, economic crises, the ongoing effects of the pandemic, and the rise of the anti-gender movement, membership engagement is needed more than ever.

New hybrid format

This year, for the first time we will hold a hybrid General Assembly with the option of participating online for our members who can not attend in person. The event will take place on Saturday 23 November, 14:30-18:00 CET, during the TGEU European and Central Asian Trans Council, in Malta.

TGEU's Board and staff are working hard to organise a successful and community-driven hybrid GA which will include TGEU's most important elections including its Board, Co-Chairs and Auditors will take place during the event. Members will have the opportunity to share insights and feedback on TGEU's organisational budget, policies and new strategy plan. Join us and shape TGEU's future!

How to register

As this is the first time TGEU will be organising a hybrid General Assembly, we want to ensure that everything runs smoothly to make the most valuable use of our member's time and efforts. This means this year, we will close registrations seven days ahead of the GA. Please be aware that if you intend to participate in the GA or vote, you must register by 14 November at 18:00 CET.

Closing registrations in advance allows us to prepare for in-person and virtual participation, ensuring we can accommodate everyone. We appreciate your understanding and support with this new approach. Your involvement is valued, and we're committed to making this GA more participatory and meaningful, where all of our members' voices are heard.
