TGEU is pleased to announce the results of its Board election, which took place this weekend. After a democratic process that saw members of TGEU cast their votes, we are excited to introduce you to our new Board.

Leading the charge as our Co-chairs for the period 2023-2024 are Dinah Bons and Sara Phillips. They'll be joined by six amazing new Board members who are joining the team: Hmayak Avetisyan, Pip Gardner, Purity K Tumukwasibwe, Raevynna El Messaoudi, Suma Abdelsamie, and vreer verkerke. The membership has also elected Justus Eisfeld and Tanja von Knorring as Auditors for the next two years. Each of these individuals brings a wealth of experience and expertise to TGEU, and we can't wait to see all the amazing things we'll achieve together.

We would like to congratulate each of these individuals on their election to the Board and look forward to working with them in the coming years to advance the rights and wellbeing of trans and gender-diverse communities across Europe, Central Asia, and beyond.

TGEU would also like to express our gratitude to all the candidates, and to all our members who participated in this important democratic process. We are proud to be an organisation that is led by and accountable to its members.

As TGEU moves forward, we remain committed to our mission of advancing gender equality, human rights and social justice for all transgender and gender diverse people. We look forward to continuing to work with our members, partners, and allies towards this goal.

Thank you for your continued support, and let's keep working for a better future for all!
