Tgeu Co-Chair, Alecs Recher, Steps Back

article

Alecs Recher has decided to step back from his position as one of the two Co-Chairs of TGEU at the end of 2016. Alecs joined the Steering Committee in 2012. He first became the Secretary and a member of the Executive Board. In 2014 he was elected Co-Chair.

Alecs has played a key role in extending and expanding the activities of TGEU in new areas as well as changing TGEU from a volunteer-led organisation into a more professional advocate of human rights. His expertise has been invaluable in many areas and issues, he continues to be active in the field of promoting human rights.

> The Steering Committee and staff team of TGEU would like to take the opportunity to thank Alecs for his work over the past four years.
